Programme for SCANSECT’s
Post Graduate Course
Saturday the 25th October, 2014

A ”Bloody” Work!

09:00 - 09:05  Welcome by Pia Sprogøe, ECCP

09:05 - 09:45  Guidelines for blood transfusion
                Kjell Titlestad, MD and Ph.D. Odense University Hospital,
                Denmark

09:45 - 10:15  Pro & con for using blood and blood products
                Is it the use of blood that increases morbidity and mortality, or is it an indication for giving the products?
                Helle Laugesen, MD. Aalborg University Hospital, Aalborg,
                Denmark

10:15 - 10:45  Coffee

10:45 - 11:15  Pro & con for using plasma expanders during CPB
                Helle Laugesen, MD. Aalborg University Hospital, Aalborg,
                Denmark

11:15 - 11:45  Platelets and platelet function
                Ann-Kristin Olsson, ECCP, MCT and Ph.D. student, Blekinge
                Hospital, Karlskrona, Sweden

11:45 - 12:15  Fibrin concentrate/Tranexamic Acid/Protrombin complex-concentrate/rFVIIa – When do we use these drugs? – What can we do when patients are treated with the new anticoagulant drugs?
                Kjell Titlestad, MD and Ph.D. Odense University Hospital,
                Denmark

12:15 - 13:15  Lunch

13:15 - 13:45  Blood saving techniques - perfusion techniques
Hansjörg Jenni, ECCP, Inselspital, University Hospital Bern, Switzerland

13:45 - 14:15
What is good quality in the residual blood from the heart-lung machine?
Ann-Kristin Olsson, ECCP, MCT and Ph.D. student. Blekinge Hospital, Karlskrona, Sweden

14:15 - 14:45
Coffee

14:45 - 15:15
Pro & Con autotransfusion
Martin Nørgaard, MD. Aalborg University Hospital, Aalborg, Denmark

15:15 - 15:45
Initial Results using a combined Intra/Postoperative drainage system
Matthew Davis, ECCP, Rigshospitalet, Copenhagen, Denmark

15:45 - 16:15
Postoperative bleeding - two different ways to calculate Heparin and Protamine dosages
Susie Lindegaard, ECCP, MCT, Odense University Hospital, Odense, Denmark

16:15 - 16:45
Discussion

18:00 - ?
Dinner

See you in Odense!